1. Trivets
These silicone trivets go from smaller to larger simply by flipping them inside out. Also in gray. In & Out Trivets, $38 each, by Konstantin Slawinski. tableartonline.com.

2. Doormat
Tough enough for the mudroom, but it would look great in front of the kitchen sink, too. Cotton with rubber backing, and machine washable. Barnboard Doormat, $49. sylvesterahome.com.

3. Ramekin
Prepare and serve individual portions of soup or soufflés in this enticing little ramekin. 4½" DIA, $80 for two, by All-Clad Metalcrafters. macys.com.

4. Dual-Temperature Faucet
A stylish complement to your primary faucet, it instantly delivers chilled and hot (near boiling) water. Classic Series Dual-Temp Faucet, $640. everpure.com.

5. Knife Set
Great knives at a great price, in an acacia-wood block that takes up minimal counter space. Seven-piece City Block Knife Set, $100, by Schmidt Brothers Cutlery. westelm.com.

6. Notepad
With a pad this appealing, you'll never again jot your grocery list on just any old scrap of paper. 150-page Scale Pad, 4¼" W x 5½" L, $12. alexapulitzer.com.
