WILD HORSES ROAM THE BEACHES OF GEORGIA'S CUMBERLAND ISLAND; CUMBERLAND ISLAND.COM

7 Finds for the Year of the Horse

I first rode a horse at the age of 3 on a family vacation at Prude Ranch in West Texas. My sister, Barbara, and I were in awe of the size and beauty of these strong, powerful animals. Since then, I have loved exploring places by horse—there is something so peaceful about riding. In fact, on a recent trip to Cumberland Island, the uninhibited wild horses trotting on the beach added to the magic of the place. With the Iroquois Steeplechase, Virginia Gold Cup, and, of course, Kentucky Derby this month, here are some pieces that celebrate the Year of the Horse.

◀ "As a homesick Texan, I love these candle holders. They make for a darling gift." Utopia Reversible Cowboy/Cowgirl Candle Holder, $48; jonathanadler.com

▶ "Some of my favorite pieces are vintage. This scarf is from Doubletake in Atlanta." Hermès Scarf, from $300; doubletakerecycledluxury.com

▶ "The leather stitching on these provide a modern take on a traditional cowboy boot." Julie Woven Leather Shootie, $348; coach.com

▲ "With Father's Day a month away, I have my eye on these Bird Dog Bay cuff links as a gift for a lucky dad." Two Bits Silk Cufflinks, $75; taigan.com

▶ "New Orleans' Alexa Pulitzer creates whimsical stationery that adds flavor to your notes." Horse A2 and Long Pads, from $12; alexapulitzer.com

▶ "Wear these for a bit of good luck." Enamel Equestrian Bangle, $38 each; baublebar.com
